YOUTSEY AND JETT GET FREEDOM FROM PENITENTIARY

Two of State's Most Famous Prisoners Are Paroled by Pardon Commission.

Frankfort, Ky., December 11.—Hon. Youtsey, who has been serving a life term sentence on a charge of complicity in the murder of former governor William Goebel, of Kentucky, was paroled tonight, by the Kentucky board of prison control, according to an announcement made by Herbert Carr, member of the board.

Youtsey will leave the penitentiary tomorrow.

After Governor Goebel was murdered as a result of a bitter political contest, Youtsey, Congressman Calem Powers and several other persons, were arrested.

Many prominent persons have attempted for years to obtain the release of Youtsey.

Former governor Goebel was murdered in 1900.

Curtis Jett, of Jackson, who was one of the principal figures in the famous Cockrill-Hargis feud, and who has been serving a life term in the penitentiary here on a charge of participating in the killing of Jim Cockrill and J. B. Marcum, both of Jackson, also was paroled today.

He left this city tonight for Madison county, where he will visit Robert Wells, at Doyleville, a schoolboy friend and will not go back to his old home until next spring, when he will attend the Wilmore College to prepare himself for the ministry.

Jett has been in jail and in prison for 16 years. He was arrested in Breathitt county in May, 1902, on both charges and the cases were transferred to Harrison county, where he was tried and convicted, and has been in the penitentiary here for fourteen and one half years.

During the last 11 years of Jett's service in the penitentiary he has been preaching, and has been assisting the Chaplain.

KILLED BY WIRE

Paris, Ky., December 12.—Mrs. Ette Insko Curtis, wife of Henry C. Curtis, of Paris, was killed last night when she touched a broken telephone wire which had become crossed with a high voltage electric light wire in front of her residence.

WANT LOCAL TRAINS TO MAKE EXTRA STOPS HERE

Farmers and Tobacco Dealers Anxious That the C. & O. Railroad Again Make Market and Poplar Streets Regular Stops.

Some months ago the C. & O. Railroad Company discontinued their regular stops at Market and Poplar streets for local trains. This was done as a conservation measure and now that the war is over and the great need for the conservation of fuel seems to have passed, those who were greatly inconvenienced by these stops are anxious that the railroad company again establish regular stops at these streets for local trains.

A number of farmers and tobacco dealers have appealed to the Chamber of Commerce to use their influence with the railroad company in this respect and today the matter was laid before Agent W. W. Wilcox.

It is pointed out that the stop at Market street is of great convenience to the large number of shoppers coming to Maysville from the nearby counties and that the stop at Poplar street will be of great convenience to the large number of tobacco men, who though operating daily on the Maysville market, spend their nights at home in nearby towns.

It is expected that the L. & N. will resume its stops at Lexington street for the benefit of the tobacco men using their line.

BOYS' HAND IS NOW PRACTICALLY ASSURED

The Maysville Boys' Band will be a great success. This seems certain by the amount of enthusiasm shown by not only the boys and their parents but also by the amount of enthusiasm shown by the business men who are backing the organization. Prof. Young is now meeting the boys and their parents every afternoon and evening at the Chamber of Commerce building to thoroughly explain the plan.

Regular weekly prayer meeting service at Third Street M. E. Church this evening led by the pastor, Rev. W. S. Peters. Service at 7 o'clock. The choir will practice after prayer meeting. All cordially invited to attend.

CONGRESS SCORED BY RIVERMEN AT ANNUAL MEETING

Congress Should Pay More Attention To the Development of the Ohio Says Prominent Insurance Man.

Louisville, Ky., December 11.—An enlarged program for the association next year and immediate action by Congress in making necessary improvements in the Ohio River were urged by speakers today addressing delegates attending the twenty-fourth annual meeting of the Ohio Valley Improvement Association in session at the Seelbach Hotel.

Speakers, including Colonel Lansing H. Beach, United States Division Engineer, and James Lee Smith, of St. Louis, President of the Mississippi Waterways Association, declared that the time has come for the Ohio Valley Improvement Association to deal with the many waterways improvement problems in a big way.

Congress was scored by Edison C. Gibbs, a retired marine insurance man of Cincinnati, for its delay in making river improvements. "For 25 years, under the leadership of Colonel John L. Vance, we have labored long and patiently, and I think the time has come to speak out," said Mr. Gibbs.

During the 24 years, he said, 25 dams have been built, while 53 dams are needed. He said the time has come to ask Congress if the people will have to wait as long for those which have been built. However, he said, the dams in recent years have been coming faster, and this, he said, has been due largely to the work and efforts of Colonel Lansing H. Beach, the Division Engineer.

Referring to the war, Mr. Gibbs said it had been brought to a close in a short time because it was done thru unity, and the same unity shown by the country in the war and applied in the Ohio Valley to the completion of the river improvements would bring speedy victory there.

The delegates listened to an address by Congressman-elect Charles F. Ogden, of the Fifth Kentucky District, who pledged his best efforts to having Congress speed up the improvements so much needed on the Ohio River and its tributaries.

It was Congressman Ogden's first appearance since his election in November and he was given an enthusiastic welcome. His statement that he would be on the job all the time when there is anything doing in river improvement was applauded by the delegates.

DAVISON URGES ALL TO BE RED CROSS MEMBERS

National Chairman Returning From Europe Urges Universal Membership in Organization.

The Public Ledger has been asked to call the attention of its readers to a paragraph from the statement made by Chairman Henry P. Davison of the Red Cross War Council on his return from spending three months in Europe.

The paragraph deals with the Red Cross Christmas Roll Call for members to be held in Mason county and the country over December 16-23. It says:

"During the week before Christmas, there is to be a Roll Call, giving every citizen an opportunity to register as a member of the volunteer humanitarian agency of the American people, which is recognized throughout the world as the American Red Cross. This membership involves no commitment beyond the payment of one dollar, but this payment will register a continuance of humane sympathy and at the same time it will have the very practical value of contributing to the continuation of Red Cross chapter work and to the meeting of the needs within our own country."

The Public Ledger has also received word from Lake Division Red Cross headquarters stating that 96 per cent of the Kentucky chapters had appointed their local Roll Call managers up to December 2. On the same day, Indiana and Ohio were 75 per cent organized in this respect.

ALL DAM FOREMEN HAVE BEEN ILL WITH FLU

The influenza during its worst in Maysville and vicinity seemed to jump over the section of the government dam but about two weeks ago it took hold of that section and many families were down with the disease. One peculiar thing about the disease in that section is that it took hold on all of the officials of the dam. The Superintendent, Assistant Superintendent and all of the six foremen had the disease but all are now practically well.

HOLSTEIN BREEDERS TO MEET SATURDAY

Important Meeting of Stock Breeders to Make Final Arrangements for Wisconsin Trip.

There will be an "open meeting" of the Holstein Breeders' Association Saturday afternoon at 2:30 at the office of the County Agent in the Chamber of Commerce. This is an important meeting, and every one interested in Holstein cows is urged to be present.

The trip to Wisconsin will be discussed, and any one desiring to purchase cows should by all means come and give their order. We expect to have Prof. Hooper, specialist in dairy cattle at the University, accompany us on this trip, and you may be sure that any animals which we buy will be right in every way. The University pays Prof. Hooper's expenses, and there will be no commission charged for purchases made. This trip is made solely in the interest of Mason county, and anyone unable to go with the party should feel no hesitation in ordering any stock needed.

JUMPS FROM FREIGHT TRAIN OVER TRESTLE

Riley Lancaster Badly Injured When He Falls Over High Railroad Trestle—Will Recover From His Injuries.

Riley Lancaster met with a rather serious accident about 7 o'clock Wednesday evening near the foot of Market street when he is said to have fallen from an East bound freight train as it entered the front street trestle.

Just how the accident occurred Lancaster has not been able to explain but one who saw it is said to have claimed that Lancaster jumped from the train as it entered the trestle as if he were trying to alight and it is supposed that he endeavored to leave the train at Market street but was thrown under the trestle.

When found his head was bleeding profusely and one leg seemed to be badly injured. An examination by Dr. W. S. Yazell disclosed a broken leg and several bad cuts on the head and face. After first aid was given him at Higgins & Slattery's livery stable, he was removed to the home of his sister, Mrs. Joseph Mitchell, in the East end of the city, where he is reported as doing nicely. He will recover.

McADOO SEEKS EXTENSION OF ROAD CONTROL 5 YEARS

President John Director General in Asking Continuation of Federal Control of Railroads.

Washington, December 11.—Extension of the period of government control of railroads for five years, until January 1, 1924, was recommended to Congress tonight by Director-General McAdoo. Advantages of this, Mr. McAdoo said are that it would take the railroad question out of politics for the present, give time for carrying out an extensive program of improvements and provide opportunity for a fair test of unified control to indicate the permanent solution of the railroad problem.

"The President has given me permission to say that this conclusion accords with his own view of the matter," Mr. McAdoo concluded.

The letter was addressed to Senator Smith, of South Carolina, and Representative Stimson, chairman, respectively of the Senate and House interstate commerce committees. Mr. McAdoo explained that to continue government operation for twenty-one months after formal declaration of peace under present conditions would mean disruption of morale among employees and officers and could not enable the government to go ahead with improvements and purchase of equipment. Another alternative, the prompt return of the railroads to private control, without legislation to permit elimination of the old wasteful competition, would be "harmful alike to the public interest and to the railroads themselves," he said and the difficulty of obtaining immediate legislation providing a permanent solution, is apparent.

"There is one, and to my mind only one, practicable and wise alternative," Mr. McAdoo continued, "and that is to extend the period of federal control from the one year and nine months provided by the present law, to five years, or until the first day of January 1924."

"There is one, and to my mind only one, practicable and wise alternative," Mr. McAdoo continued, "and that is to extend the period of federal control from the one year and nine months provided by the present law, to five years, or until the first day of January 1924."

HARRIS CASE BEFORE COURT OF APPEALS TODAY

The Court of Appeals will today hear the appeal of Lewis Harris convicted in the Mason Circuit Court on a charge of murder and sentenced to die in the electric chair. It is likely that it will be several days before the court's decision is announced.

FORMER COUNTY JUDGE OF FLEMING SAID TO BE INSANE

Judge John D. Wyatt Taken Into Custody Here This Afternoon—Investigation Into His Mental Condition to Be Made.

Upon request of relatives, Sheriff Galbraith this afternoon took into custody Judge J. D. Wyatt at his home in Front street and placed him in the Mason county jail for safe keeping until next Monday when an investigation into his mental condition will be made before Judge Newell and jury.

Friends and relatives of Judge Wyatt have noticed for some time that his mind was not altogether right but for the past few days he is said to have become worse until it became necessary that the authorities take some action.

Judge Wyatt is ex-County Judge of Fleming county and for several years had edited newspapers through this section of the country. He came to Maysville about two years ago and for a while managed the St. Charles Hotel. He has recently been editor of the Manchester (Ohio) Signal but resigned that position and returned here with his family.

BREST IN HOLIDAY ATTIRE TO RECEIVE WILSON TOMORROW

President Wilson Will Arrive at French Port Tomorrow at Noon—Paris Cleaning Up For Wilson.

Brest, December 12.—Brest has put on its holiday attire and is eagerly awaiting the arrival of President Wilson at noon tomorrow. The American naval establishment here got into direct wireless touch, this morning, with the presidential fleet which is approaching this part and which now is not far off the coast. The place President Wilson and the Courts Dajot, along which the President will pass are elaborately beflagged, but the decorations were dripping today from a steady rainfall.

The cabinet ministers and officials who are to welcome the President will arrive here tomorrow.

A large delegation of Socialist members of the Chamber of Deputies has arrived to greet President Wilson, but the principal figures expected, Albert Thomas and Marcel Sembat, were unable to come. Deputies Goude, Longuet, Pressensac and Raffin-Dugens were among the delegation. They called a mass meeting tonight, which included the friendly demonstrations toward the President.

Dispatches from Paris report the police continuing their work of "cleaning up" the city before the arrival of the President. They have stopped all afternoon dancing upstairs over Maxim's, where American officers and Red Cross girls have dancing at the Cnu-murth theater has been suppressed also.

OUR POLICY

To support such measures as are unquestionably for the good of Mason County as an entire community, rather than such propositions as are in favor of the individual interest, or of one section as against another. And likewise to earnestly and consistently oppose all things that are not for the good of the County as a whole.

AVOIDING THE FLU

The influenza is not disappearing over the country as fast as it was hoped. The situation imposes upon everyone the duty to watch himself closely and keep away from it, and also as far as possible not to carry it to others. If you have a case at home, don't go among people who might catch the malady. We strongly suspect that there is much thoughtlessness in this regard. If you are subject to flu, don't endanger other people, even if you escape yourself. We are told that the epidemic may last into the winter and that is possible if people do not exercise greater care than they seem to be doing. There is more danger to the community in carrying it than in going where it is and getting it. But if you get it, or think you have, go home and stay there till it is all over. Maysville is now practically free from this malady. Let's all work together to keep it so.

The Farmer Receives More Than Five Thousand Dollars a Minute From Swift & Company

This amount is paid to the farmer for live stock, by Swift & Company alone, during the trading hours of every business day.

All this money is paid to the farmer through the open market in competition with large and small packers, shippers, speculators and dealers.

The farmer, feeder, or shipper receives every cent of this money ($300,000 an hour, nearly $2,000,000 a day, $11,500,000 a week) in cash, on the spot, as soon as the stock he has just sold is weighed up.

Some of the money paid to the farmer during a single day comes back to the company in a month from sale of products; much does not come back for sixty or ninety days or more. But the next day Swift & Company, to meet the demands made by its customers, must pay out another $2,000,000 or so, and at the present high price levels keeps over $250,000,000 continuously tied up in goods on the way to market and in bills owed to the company.

This gives an idea of the volume of the Swift & Company business and the requirements of financing it. Only by doing a large business can this company turn live stock into meat and by-products at the lowest possible cost, prevent waste, operate refrigerator cars, distribute to retailers in all parts of the country—and be recompensed with a profit of only a fraction of a cent a pound—a profit too small to have any noticeable effect on the price of meat or live stock.

Swift & Company, U. S. A.

RED CROSS FUTURE IS LINKED WITH ROLL CALL

Davison, War Council Head, Outlines Tasks That Lie Ahead

Next week's Red Cross Christmas Roll Call for members is characterized as "the foundation of the Red Cross" by Chairman H. P. Davison of the Red Cross War Council in his statement describing the future of the Red Cross.

"Wherever our soldiers and sailors may be, the Red Cross will stay with them until they are demobilized. Nothing which we may do will be left undone, either for the men in the war zone, their families at home, to whom will continue to be devoted the ministrations of the Red Cross Home Service," promises Mr. Davison.

Volunteer Aid Needed. "The wake of the war will, however, reveal the prevalence of disease, and give rise to emergencies which in all parts of the world will call for unlimited voluntary effort.

"There will be the opportunity for the American Red Cross. But even our Red Cross must not act and cannot act most effectively alone; we must labor in co-operation with the national Red Cross and relief societies of other nations, to the end that not alone the heart of America but the heart of all mankind may be mobilized on behalf of suffering humanity."

Mr. Davison declares the American Red Cross to be planning "to develop its permanent organization in this country on a scale never before contemplated in time of peace."

Home Work to Grow. "Study," he says, "is being given by the national organization not alone to problems of international relief, but to plans in this country for enlarged home service, promotion of public health, education, development of nursing, care and prevention of accidents and other co-related lines which may contribute to the health and happiness of men, women and children.

"The work of supplementing governmental activities, which the Red Cross will be called upon to do in all parts of the world, will be upon a great scale, but it will call for human service rather than for large expenditures.

"What the Red Cross needs now is not so much contributions of money, as the continued devotion and loyalty of its members.

Join and Serve! "Annual membership involves the payment of only one dollar.

"The money thus received not only defrays all the administrative expenses of the organization, but leaves a substantial balance, which, together with all funds subscribed directly for relief, are solely devoted to that purpose.

"The Roll Call of the nation is thus to be called at Christmas time, that through enrollment in the Red Cross the American people may send a message to our soldiers still overseas and to the peoples of the world that we are not merely content with seeing our arms united with our allies in victory, but that our abiding purpose is that the love, the sympathy and the intelligence of all America shall be rededicated to the permanent service of mankind."

From Red Cross hospital gardens in France over 5,000 convalescent soldiers have harvested 23 tons of green vegetables and a large crop of potatoes.

The A. R. C. Child Welfare exhibit now touring France makes a big hit.

KEPT HER AWAKE

The Terrible Pains in Back and Sides. Cardui Gave Relief.

Marksville, La.—Mrs. Alice Johnson, of this place, writes: "For one year I suffered with an awful misery in my back and sides. My left side was hurting me all the time. The misery was something awful.

I could not do anything, not even sleep at night. It kept me awake most of the night. I took different medicines, but nothing did me any good or relieved me until I took Cardui.

I was not able to do any of my work for one year and I got worse all the time, was confined to my bed off and on. I got so bad with my back that when I stooped down I was not able to straighten up again. I decided I would try Cardui. By time I had taken the entire bottle I was feeling pretty good and could straighten up and my pains were nearly all gone.

I shall always praise Cardui. I continued taking it until I was strong and well." If you suffer from pains due to female complaints, Cardui may be just what you need. Thousands of women who once suffered in this way now praise Cardui for their present good health. Give it a trial. NC-133

FRIDAY See Constance Talmadge in Miss Leffingwell's Boots

It's All Right, Push It On, Boys Band

See Constance Talmage in "Miss Leffingwell's Boots" FRIDAY

In Memoriam of Mrs. Nellie Hendrickson Ruggles

"O death where is thy sting! O grave where is thy victory!"

These words found a glowing illustration in the passing of our beloved sister. She went away in a blaze of celestial light! There was a glory in her soul! Her farewell was tender but triumphant. She could say with Wesley in his last moments, "The best of all is, God is with us."

To one who leaves this world with a convey from the skies, death is not a calamity. The grave is only a temporary resting place. The tears we shed is not for the dead but for the living, for those,

"Who shall meet but they shall miss her. There will be a vacant chair. They shall linger to carress her. When they breathe their evening prayer."

The lovely woman with whom we part so reluctantly, was born near Martin, Lewis county, Ky., April 8th, 1893. Her parents, Joseph and Rachael Hendrickson, died in her infancy, and in the home of her grandparents, Richard Kennedy and wife, she grew to womanhood.

She was educated in the public schools of Lewis county. As the age of fourteen she was converted, and joined the M. E. Church at Muncie, Ind., December 1907, under the ministry of Rev. W. H. Morris. She was married to Rev. John F. Ruggles December 2, 1911, and perhaps a happier union was never consummated. One whose opportunities for knowledge the home-life of these servants of God bears testimony to their devotion to each other, and to the ideal character of this model home.

This happy union was blessed with five children. Gladys Lorene, John F. Jr., Lena Jane, Joseph Sherman, Howard Taylor. The first born was taken to the Father's house when only three months and eight days old; the others are left, many we not hope, to make this world a better place in which to live and to add stars to her crown who will forever live in them; for the fruitage of their lives will be the fruitage of hers. She leaves, besides her husband, a sister and a brother to mourn her loss—Mrs. John Madden of Maysville, Ky., and Mr. O. E. Hendrickson of Covington, Ky. As to her friends, who can number them, for all who knew her loved her!

Though modest and retiring sister Ruggles had a winning personality. She was well poised, nothing frustrated her. The trials of the family never ruffled her temper or disturbed her equilibrium. Though not demonstrative, she was full of love and sympathy. As a mother none was more tender; yet she was firm, and her lovely children show the strength of her guiding hand. Her hospitality was bounded only by her resources and opportunities. She loved to entertain her ministerial brethren, and they in turn were delighted to be in her home. Her guests were always in case, for she made them feel that they were no burden.

In daily life she was a consistent Christian. In the house of God she was a reverent and devout worshiper.

Her life was brief but bursting with blessings. She made the greatest contribution to this world that it is in the power of mortals to give—a family of promising children, like the plant that matures its seed then returns to earth.

In earthly contests he wins the prize who first reaches the goal; and in the race for a heavenly home, shall we not count them happy who finish their course in the shortest time? Her trials are past; her eyes are done with weeping, for "He hath wiped all tears away." Freed from disease, infused with immortal vigor, she will grow in holiness, develop in intelligence, increase in knowledge while the eternal ages roll. Her beautiful form may moulder into dust but with a body like her Lord's she shall "Shine like the stars forever."

It falls to the lot of many to suffer through years of sickness and pain. But she escaped all this, only one month covering the period of her decline.

From a vigorous womanhood she passed like an autumn leaf crisped by an untimely frost. The most beautiful flowers soon fade and die, but they live again when the vernal showers return, and so shall it be with her.

To her dear children, she has bequeathed the heritage of a Godly life, the greatest legacy any one can inherit. She will be their guardian Angel, and may we not hope they will all live together again in the heavenly home.

J. J. DICKEY.

There's was a very happy home, how well we all remember; In the cottage just across the way—until this last September. A husband and wife so happy their little children four.

So loving, kind affectionate, they one another did adore. The wife a loving mother so patient, gentle, kind and good. Her babes did love and fondle as only a model mother could. An ideal Christian home-life where each member joined in prayer. A charming hostess at all times, many friends were welcomed there.

And thus mid joy and happiness the days sped swiftly by. There came a day of sorrow—like lightning from a sunny sky.

The fair young wife lay sick in bed, her husband was very sad. He gazed upon her pale sweet face, whose beauty had made him glad. The doctor said "Nelle's very sick but I hope she'll soon get well."

I pray my darling wife will live—he thought we cannot tell. Could it be that God our Father, kind and merciful as He Would take the mother of my babes and my darling Nelle from me.

As though his thoughts she'd heard, her brown eyes open wide. With tears she looked at him and beckoned him unto her side. Her head then pillowed on his breast, these words to him she said, "So happy we have been together, in the years that we've been wed. Now, dear our happiness is past, these words will sorely grieve you. Sorrow and grief is yours, for 'tis God's will that I should leave you. With you and our children, I would still love to dwell. But 'tis will be done, 'tis who doeth all things well."

Then she lovingly tenderly, gazed at the little trundle bed. Where on the snowy pillow lay little Joe's flaxen curly head. I'd be quite happy, dear if little Joe could go with me. You still would have the care, of our other children three. And lay me in that little churchyard, so near your boyhood's home. Beside our first born child there sleeping, then I'll not be alone. God is with us, He will aid us, through death's valley go with me, He'll comfort you—we'll meet in Heaven! Good bye! until eternity.

Now the days pass far more slowly, sickness and sorrow still were here. The children were ill, again death's angel hovered near. Instead of Joe claimed little Howard—a babe just nine months old. Again the young man's heart was wounded, deeper than can be told. As a minister of the Gospel, he knows God gives strength to bear. All the trials, tribulations, sorrows, trouble, grief and care. He knows beyond the grave there's happiness in store. Reunited with his loved ones, where they'll be parted never more.

But God sent an angel, to bear her handsome soul on high.

Sad indeed that this young mother should die and there be laid away. Let us trust in God securely, He'll comfort us and with us stay. We may grieve—the Bible tells us how our Lord and Savior died. How overcome with grief, when His friend Lazarus had died.

Let our grief be not like theirs, who have no hope beyond the grave. Thank God we have a Savior who our immortal souls doth save.

WILL ENFORCE DOG LAW

The following letter from Commissioner of Agriculture Mat S. Cohen to County Clerk J. J. Owens, will explain itself:

County Clerk J. J. Owens, Dear Sir: Replying to yours of November 30, in which you ask in case a man should come to the office between the 5th and 10th of January and ask to have license issued him for his dog, or dogs whether or not you should issue or refuse to do so by closing your books as required by the act of January 1, beg to advise that the law states specifically and emphatically that all dogs must be licensed on or before January 1, 1919, and after that date should any owner who has listed his dog, or who owns a dog asks to have same licensed, you should immediately swear a warrant for him for the violation of this act, or else notify the Sheriff with a written notice to the effect in order that the Sheriff may proceed to carry out the provision of this act.

I say to you frankly this law is put on the statute books to be enforced, and you may say to your people that it is going to be enforced regardless of who the violator may be.

If the department can serve you further in this or any other matter only command believe me. Yours very truly, MAT S. COHEN, Commissioner of Agriculture

"IN A BAD WAY"

Many a Maysville Reader Will Feel Grateful for This Information.

If your back gives out; Becomes lame, weak or aching; If urinary troubles set in, Perhaps your kidneys are "In a bad way."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for weak kidneys. Local evidence proves their merit.

Mrs. R. W. Lauderback, W. Second Street, says: "Two years ago I was suffering with kidney trouble and had been for a long time. I was nervous and dizzy and had severe headaches. My kidneys were too frequent in action and annoyed me greatly. I had a dull ache across the small of my back and my back was so lame at times that I could hardly bend one way or the other. Some one advised me to use Doan's Kidney Pills and I got a box at Wood & Son's Drug Store. They helped me at once and continued use entirely cured me of the trouble."

Mrs. Lauderback is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS, the same that cured Mrs. Lauderback—the remedy backed by home testimony. 60c all stores. PREMIER EBERT LOOKS TO GUARDS FOR MILITARY HELP

Self Resigns as Foreign Minister—Early Meeting of the Reichstag Is Planned It Is Reported.

Berlin, December 12.—The German cabinet, antipathetic a refusal by the Allies to deal with the present government and the Soldiers' and Workmen's Council, according to the Tagblatt of Berlin, is considering convoking the Reichstag to give the government a parliamentary basis.

Dr. W. S. Solf, the minister of foreign affairs, has handed in his resignation, which has been accepted by the cabinet.

London, November 12.—In consequence of the support he is receiving from the Prussian Guard, newly arrived in Berlin, Premier Friedrich Ebert is taking a stiffer attitude toward the Spartacus group, the special correspondents in Copenhagen of the London papers are advised.

"The proletariat must be prepared for the worst," the Red Flag, organ of the Spartacus faction, is quoted as saying.

Berlin's welcome to the Prussian Guards on Tuesday was solemn, according to Berlin advices. The troops marched under the German national colors, and the bands played "Deutschland über Alles."

Premier Ebert welcomed the soldiers. His speech to the soldiers is reported as follows: "Your deeds and sacrifices are unexampled. No enemy overcame you. Only when the preponderance of our opponents in men and material grew ever heavier did we abandon the struggle. With deepest emotion the homeland thanks you. You can return with heads erect. Never have men done or suffered more than you."

A sergeant replied to the effect that the watchword now must be "Quiet." He said that the soldiers desired the convening of the National assembly at the earliest moment and did not want to be led away from the "secure" path of quiet and order by Dr. Karl Liebknecht or other dreamers.

Lieutenant Beecher Holiday Writes Interestingly of His Experience in France—Now in Hospital.

Captain Horace J. Cochran is in receipt of the following very interesting letter from Lieut. Beecher Holiday of this city, formerly Superintendent of the Maysville Street Railroad Company:

On Active Service with American Expeditionary Forces, November 21, 1918. Mr. Horace Cochran, Maysville, Ky.
Dear Sir: I am now in the hospital in Southern France. I was at the front from October 13th to November 7th. The trip liked to have put me out of business, but I had made up my mind to stay until we went to the front. I never got back. We were sent back on November 7th. We fought all that day and were to go over the top at four p. m., but Fritz had left for parts unknown. I was up within ten kilometers (6.2 miles) of the city of Sedan and I have been all through the Argonne Woods. That place is as dear to me as I ever want to be. There were thirteen of us officers who took fifteen hundred men to the front. As far as I can find out, I am the only officer left. I don't know how many men were killed but there were some of them killed on November 1st, almost at my feet. I had just moved from the spot myself. It was a shell from a long range gun. If there was a safe place over here while the fighting was on, I failed to find it. If you were behind the lines the aeroplanes made it hot for you, also the long range guns. I never felt so perfectly helpless before in my life until I got amongst those aeroplanes. They sure make your hair stand on end.

I will have to tell you the rest of my experience some other time. I will know tomorrow if I go on duty with troops in Germany or come on home.

You can read this letter to my friends as there is nothing of any importance and I can't write to them. I am hardly able to write this letter. The doctor went most of yesterday afternoon with me and he said it would take me some time to get on my feet again. I have been trying to write you ever since I have been over here and this is the only time I have ever felt like I could stay in one place long enough to write a letter.

Yours respectfully,
BEECHER HOLIDAY.

Regards to everybody.

LEAGUE'S ANNUAL MEETING

"The Conflict of the Crosses" is the topic for next Sunday's devotional service of the Epworth League of the Third Street M. E. Church. This will be the annual Epworth Herald service which is always a big event in League-dom. The scheme used in the program is that which was partly taken from suggestions from a Maysville lady, Mrs. Adah Porter Hicks, and for which she won one-third of the fifty dollar prize. The leading idea in the program is the conflict between the iron cross and the Epworth League motto "Look Up; Lift Up." The League invites all Maysville young people, and old as well, to attend.
